

SPRING THEATRE EDUCATION CLASSES

Classes meet on Saturday mornings, March 17–April 28, 2018.

Classes will not meet on Saturday, March 31, 2018.

Imagination Station

For ages 5-7, Imagination Station students will use a favorite book as inspiration to create a play with their favorite characters.

Acting 1

For ages 8-10, Acting 1 students will work on focus and build a character from scratch and discover new ways to connect with each other on stage.

Acting 2

For ages 10-12, Acting 2 students will explore the ways an actor and director work with a script.

Imagination Station

Ages 5-7 • 9:00-9:45 a.m.

Students will use a favorite book as inspiration to create a play with their favorite characters. After learning a little more about stage direction and characters, students will get their beautiful brains working on a theatrical level!

Acting 1

Ages 8-10 • 10:00-11:00 a.m.

Students will work on focus and build a character from scratch. Using favorite improvisational games, as well as a few new ones, students will discover new ways to connect with each other on stage while still having fun telling a story!

Acting 2

Ages 10-12 • 10:00-11:00 a.m.

Students will work with scripts this section. Learning to read and analyze a script is an important part of being an actor. From lines to stage directions, students will explore the ways an actor and director work with a script. Of course, there will be fun to be had on stage too!
